Exchange & Broker's Office,
Georgetown, District of Columbia.

ROMULUS RIGGS.
AT his office, next door below Crawford's tavern, Bridge-st. Georgetown, will exchange all kinds of Bank Notes on the most reasonable terms.—All persons who may have notes on the banks of North Carolina, South Carolina and Georgia, would do well to call on him, as he is largely in the purchase of that kind of money, and will take it on the most reasonable terms.—Persons travelling to the Western Country may at all times get the Bank Notes of the Western Bank at a fair discount, by calling at his Office. For the information of all persons throughout the U. States, R. Riggs makes it known, that all of the Banks of the District of Columbia pay their notes on demand in specie; and it would be much to the advantage of the merchants, and trading to the South and west, to encourage the circulation of the Notes of the Banks of Georgetown, Washington and Alexandria, as it will at all times answer for remittances to the large commercial and Atlantic towns.—all persons emigrating or travelling to the westward should be very particular and take the Notes of the Banks of the District of Columbia, as they will find them the most current, there being no counterfeits on the District Banks. The Merchants' Bank of Alexandria has long since failed—all persons should be on their guard, as they will be imposed on.
August 12.

Ten Dollars Reward.
RAN away from the subscriber about the 4th of August, Negro Woman LOUIZA—she is 25 years old, about 5 feet five inches high, and stout; has some of her front teeth out, and is apt to laugh when spoken to; she has a sister Marinda and a mother living in Georgetown, one above Semmes's tavern, and the other on Herring Hill, where she has been harbored for two weeks, and left there to come home, but has not done so. I expect she can be found in Georgetown or Alexandria, where she has many acquaintances. I will give the above reward if brought home, or lodged in jail so that I get her again.

ACADEMY.
THE Subscriber most respectfully informs the inhabitants of Alexandria, that he will open an English, Mercantile, and Mathematical Academy at Mr. Rudd's, Prince-street, a few doors west of the Farmers' Bank; where youth shall be instructed with care and expedition in the following sciences, in order to qualify them for the different departments in trade and business, viz. In the Mercantile, Naval, and Military line.—Reading; writing; arithmetic; English grammar; book-keeping; geometry; both plane and solid; mensuration of surfaces and solids; trigonometry, both plane and spherical; surveying; gaging; navigation; dialing; use of the globes, maps, and geography; algebra; conic-sections; mechanics; gunnery; fortification; fluxions; astronomy; &c. &c.
Applications to be made to Mr. Guy Atkinson, Mr. Wm. Dunlap, or at the academy, where the terms will be made known.
The Academy will open on the 17th inst.
JAS. CADEN.
Prof. Math. & Nat. Philosophy *Arithmetic in so compendious a manner, (by lecture) that one figure does the office of ten in the common way; and of course, in one tenth the time the student can acquire a regular knowledge of this excellent art.
Books-keeping (by single and double entry) in all its varieties, with general lectures on Domestic, Factory, and Company Accounts; Accounts of Exchange; Negotiation of bills; covering of cargoes, &c. with calculations, shewing at one view the state of the trader, merchant, factor, and grocer's affairs. These being more closely connected with business than any of the above, occasioned the subscriber to point them out to the public. He also invites the learned to visit the academy at their convenience, and to judge for themselves. On the first of October he will open an Evening School, for the accommodation of those whose employment prevents from attending during the day.

Baltimore Hospital.
24th August, 1848.
THE board of visitors have much pleasure in announcing to the public, that within the last eighteen months, a large and elegant addition has been made to this valuable institution, in the erection of the East wing of the building. This wing is 152 feet in length and 36 in width, with an extensive Southern projection at its extreme East end. It contains between 30 and 40 apartments, admirably calculated for the accommodation of every class of patients. Of this number are several large and airy wards, intended particularly for the reception of seamen, and well adapted to their various diseases. These different rooms and wards will be warmed by open fires, and by heated air thrown into them, from furnaces constructed on a safe and improved plan. Arrangements will also soon be made for lighting the apartments in the entire building, with gas.
The unwearied exertions of Doctors Mackenzie and Smyth, the attending Physicians of the Hospital, in their attention to the construction of the building, and their care of the sick, have given a character to this Institution, which is now inferior to none in the United States. In the short space of six years, a most noble establishment has been erected—a thing without parallel in this country. It is well known, that above half a century has been consumed, in bringing the Hospitals of New-York and Philadelphia to their present size, and it is admitted by many gentlemen, who have visited these institutions, that the Hospital here, is by far the most extensive, the whole building being now 350 feet in length.
The daily increase of the sick in the Hospital, renders it absolutely necessary that the new wing should be furnished; and every exertion is now making, to have it completed, before the cold weather shall set in.
The visitors at their late meeting, examined the Institution with much care, the apartments of the sick in the private infirmary—those in the lunatic asylum—and the wards of the sick and disabled seamen in the Marine Hospital—and they assert with confidence, that the sick and afflicted of every description are well accommodated and carefully attended. They have seen at their different meetings, the private patient comfortable; the wretched marine humanely taken care of; and the sailor, disabled by age, wounds and sickness, well provided with suitable medical assistance, and with every other comfort which his condition may require. Indeed the agreeable situation in which this very useful class of men are placed, does much credit, as well to the Director of the Marine Hospital, as to the attending Physicians, to whose immediate care they are entrusted. Every praise too, which the visitors can bestow, is due to Mr. & Mrs. Gatchel, the Stewart and Matron of the Hospital, for the neat and clean manner in which the House is uniformly kept, and for their care and attention to the administration of the internal economy of the establishment.
Before they conclude this account of the Hospital, the visitors would invite the attention of their fellow citizens throughout the United States, to the Anatomical Cabinet of Wax Preparations, by Chappi, which certainly far surpasses any thing of the kind ever exhibited in this country; and will afford to those whose curiosity may lead them to see how "fearfully and wonderfully they are made," but more especially to the medical student, a fund of useful information.
The Hospital is under the care of the following medical gentlemen: Doctors Colin Mackenzie ) Attending James Smyth ) Physicians.
Dr. Horatio Gates Jameson, Attending Surg.
Doctors George Brozen
John Coulter
John Campbell White

ABSCONDED from the subscriber's service, on Saturday night the 15th inst. Negro woman TREACE or TREACY—she is five feet two or three inches high, about 30 years of age, of a very dark complexion, and when particularly examined is very apt to confound herself.—It is deemed unnecessary to mention her clothing, as she has all of them with her, and being extremely artful, she no doubt will change them and endeavor to pass for a free woman. She is well acquainted in Charles county, Prince George's, Alexandria and the City, as about 5 years ago she made her escape, and was 6 or 7 months about the Lower Ferry, leading to Alexandria, and from thence to Washington City, where she acquired an extensive acquaintance among the Negroes belonging to John Brent, esq.; and the greater part of said Negroes belong now to William and Robert Brent, esqrs. and Mr. Dudley Digges. Negro Treace has a scar on the back part of her neck, occasioned by a scorpion put for the benefit of her eyes, which are very weak at this time. I will give 10 dollars if taken in the county and secured in jail, or if out of the county and secured as aforesaid, so that I get her again, 25 dollars, and all reasonable charges paid if brought home. All persons are forewarned harboring or employing said Negro at their peril, as the law will be rigorously put in force against any offender.

French Creek Boarding School.
The following is published for the information of Parents:
HAVING long believed that a School on a plan different from most others in many respects, would be beneficial to society, and apprehending that with all its cares, and the responsibility inseparable from such a concern, I could more cheerfully devote my time to the education of children than to any other business, I have concluded to establish a BOARDING SCHOOL FOR GIRLS. With this view I have purchased the FARMER CREEK FARM, four miles east of the yellow springs, on the Norristown and Philadelphia road, situated in Pike and Vincent townships, Chester county, twenty-seven miles from Philadelphia, combining many conveniences for the support of such an institution; and having let the farm, etc. in a way calculated to supply the family with provisions, I propose to devote my attention, with the aid of suitable assistants, to the education of the children who may be placed under my care.
In selecting the pupils, it is not proposed to be governed entirely by their ages, nor to require that they shall all be members of the religious society of Friends; but as the school rules will be very few in number and very simple, it is my wish that none may be sent contrary to their own inclination, nor any one who would not be likely to be good examples to the other scholars, and treat them with kindness and affection.
The price for board and tuition will be two hundred Dollars per annum, one quarter always to be paid in advance—no restrictions respecting the kind of clothing are intended, nor respecting the frequency of the changes that parents may require; the washing will be charged at the ordinary price per dozen—children may be admitted for one quarter only, and such as are entered for a longer period, may nevertheless be removed at the expiration of any quarter.—The communication with Philadelphia will be frequent and easy by stage, and a house of entertainment kept by the farmer for the accommodation of persons having business at the school.
Reading, Writing, Arithmetic, English Grammar, Geography and the use of Maps and globes, will be taught, together with such other branches as the progress of the children and experience may render expedient. The school to open the first of the 5th month next. For further information apply to Edward Stabler, Alexandria, or to

A thousand faults in man we find, Merit in him we seldom meet;
Man is inconsistent and unkind;
Man is false and indiscreet.
Man is capricious, jealous, free, He's insincere, vain, trifling too—
And yet the women all agree, For want of better he must do.

A LADY.
From a late English Paper.

Yesterday Michael Brignel, was indicted for feloniously stealing six chairs, the property of Frederick Crabb. It appeared that the prisoner, who is a young man of dashing appearance and address, but whose person is well known to the police officers, went to the shop of the prosecutor, who is a broker, and ordered half a dozen chairs, which he selected from the broker's stock, to be sent to a house in Great Suffolk street, desiring that a bill and receipt should be sent along with them, as he would pay for them on delivery. The chairs were accordingly sent at the time appointed. The prisoner was at home, and produced a ten pound note, desiring the porter to give him the change; this the man was not prepared to do. He then desired the man to leave the chairs saying he would call and pay his master for them. This the man refused to do, saying that his master's directions were, that the chairs should not be left unless they were paid for. The prisoner then said he would go with him, and pay his master. Upon this proposition the chairs were left, and the prisoner and the porter set out on their way to the prosecutor's shop—when about half way there, however, the prisoner turned suddenly down a street, and made his escape.—The porter immediately informed his master, who went to the house where the chairs had been left, but could not obtain admission. It was now evening—he therefore placed a watch at the door during the night, and next morning having obtained a search warrant, he entered the house and recovered his chairs. The prisoner was sometime afterwards taken into custody.

Mr. Cowley for the prisoner, contended that this was no felony, but a simple contract debt for goods sold and delivered. Mr. Heath, being on the other side, submitted that the manner in which the prisoner obtained the property amounted to felony. The court was of the latter opinion, and the question being left to the jury they found the prisoner guilty. The court sentenced him to be transported for seven years.

MECHANICS—PERPETUAL MOTION.
John Spence, an ingenious individual, residing at Lighthgow, in Scotland, has applied the magnetic power to the production of a perpetual motion. This person was in early life apprenticed to a shoemaker, but the natural bent of his genius overcame every obstacle—hegot to be keeper of a steam engine in a spinning factory at Glasgow, and after two years' study in this school, retired to his native place to pursue the shoemaking for bread, and wheels, levers, &c. for the gratification of his own taste. The perpetual motion was an object worthy of such a devotee, and we find that he has invented a piece of mechanism which is doubly curious, from its own powers, and from the extraordinary difficulties in whose despite it has been accomplished. It is not easy to convey an idea of it without plates.

A wooden beam, poised by the centre, has a piece of steel attached to one end of it, which is alternately drawn up by a magnet placed above it, and down by another placed below it. As the end of the beam approaches the magnet, either above or below, the machine ejects a non-conducting substance, which suspends the attraction of the magnet approached, and allows the other to exert its powers. Thus the end of the beam continually ascends and descends betwixt the two magnets, without ever coming into contact with either; the attractive power of each being suspended precisely at the moment of nearest approach. And as the magnetic attraction is a permanently operating power, there appears to be no limit to the continuance of the motion, but the endurance of the materials of the machine.

The first machine made by Mr. Spence, is very rude, and fashioned by his own hands; but he intends applying the principle to the motion of a time piece. We trust this ingenious man will meet the encouragement he deserves, as the reward of his talents and perseverance.

ALEXANDRIA:
WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 30, 1818.

The excellence of the Irish music, particularly in the two contrasted qualities of tenderness and vivacity, has for ages been dwelt upon with admiration and applause by the accomplished men of all countries. Even those who, from national antipathy, have refused to allow the Irish people any other merit, have been compelled to acknowledge the powerful effects of their music upon the feelings and passions. Of this I was once told a most striking instance. The song of Erin Go Bragh being sung by a lady in a mixed company, a gentleman, well known to be as abhorrent of all sorts of popular excesses as any man in Great Britain, observed, that had he been an Irishman, he believed that song would have made a rebel of him.—Yesterday, turning over one of a number of old volumes of books, with the perusal of which I often withdraw my thoughts from the perplexities of life, I accidentally stumbled upon a still stronger proof, which I transcribe for your paper.—Cambrensis is well known to have signalized himself as an enemy and traducer of the Irish nation, and he, speaking of its music, pronounces the following eulogy, which may well be regarded as in no way exaggerated, or more than strict justice demanded, when it is considered that the author has taken every opportunity, in other things, to defame and asperse the Irish character.

"The attention of this people to musical instruments, (says he) I find worthy of commendation; in which their skill is, beyond all comparison, superior to that of any other nation I have seen; for in all these, the modulation is not slow and solemn, as in the instruments of Britain, to which we are accustomed; but the sounds are rapid and precipitate, yet at the same time sweet and pleasing. It is wonderful how, in such a precipitate rapidity of the fingers, the musical proportions are preserved; and by their art, faultless throughout, in the midst of their complicated modulations, and intricate arrangement of notes, by a rapidity so sweet, a regularity so irregular, a concord so discordant, the melody is rendered harmonious and perfect, whether the chords of the diatesseron, or diatense are strung together, yet they always begin in a soft mood, and end in the same, that all may be perfected in the sweetness of delicious sounds. They enter upon and again leave their modulations with so much subtlety, and the tinklings of the small strings, sport with so much freedom under the deep notes of the bass, delight with so much delicacy, and sooth so softly, that the excellence of their art seems to be in concealing it."

* Cambrensis. Topograph Distinct 3. cap. ii.
A coroner's inquest was yesterday held on the body of a Negro man named Phil, the property of F. Fairfax, esq. who was found drowned in the river Potomac, opposite Muncaster's wharf.

There is now growing on the farm of Robert Hamilton, esq. in Brandywine Hundred, New-Castle Co. Delaware, a stalk of Corn, measuring as it stands, seventeen and a half feet in height.—The seed was brought from the West Indies. [Del. Gaz.]

From the Aurora.
Extract of a letter from Commodore Aury to the editor, received via Kingston, Jamaica, dated Island of St. Catherine and Old Providence, July 18, 1818.

"The interest which you have manifested in the cause of the emancipation of South America, and your kindness in vindicating me against so many unjust imputations and aspersions, have made a strong impression of gratitude on my heart, and I write to testify it, &c. and I shall take the liberty of frequently calling myself to your recollection."

On the 6th of the present month, the flags of the independent governments of Buenos Ayres and Chili, were hoisted in this island, in conformity with an authority with which I have had the honor to be invested, by those independent governments.

The occupation of some position in these seas, had become absolutely indispensable to the great objects which we have had so long in view, and which have been retarded by causes to which you are no stranger; the emancipation of South America requires a convenient rendezvous for the fruits of the tropics and abundance of excellent vegetables as in New Grenada. What Margarita is to Venezuela, this place is to New Grenada. I enclose you a proclamation, which I have issued here, with a view that all the friends of liberty may know where we are, and where to hear of us.

We are in excellent condition here, and every respect will be paid to the flags of all nations, and every protection to those who may be disposed to commercial enterprises. I shall write you again in a few days."

New-Haven, September 18.
Arrived brig Shepherdesse. Lines, Turks Island, 17 days, via New-York, salt. Left ship Robert, of and for New-York, to sail next day—brig Diamond sailed 2 days before, for Middletown—a Rhode Island brig sailed 3 days before for Providence. The Shepherdesse arrived and was admitted to entry at Turks Island on the 22d August.

Seized for Salt Key on the 23d.—On the 24th, after having taken on board about 1400 bushels salt, Michael Daxton, his British majesty's naval officer and secretary, came on board with a number of men armed with cutlasses and pistols, and seized said brig, and treated captain Lines in a very abusive and ungentlemanly manner, presented a pistol twice at his breast and threatened to shoot him unless he went immediately into the boat.—Would not permit him to go into the cabin after a change of clothes or even a hat, but forced him, together with every man belonging to the vessel, into the jolly boat and set them adrift. He then immediately got the brig under weigh for the Grand Turk, where she anchored on the 25th. Said Daxton then went on shore, and demanded formally of the collector, (Mr. Gibbs,) the register, which was refused him, there being no ground of seizure—same day the officers of the customs repaired on board, and re-examined the stores: finding the whole agreeable to the manifest delivered at the custom-house, they returned to the shore, and endeavored to convince said Daxton of the impropriety and illegality of his proceedings, but he being anxious to secure, tho' unjustly, the perquisites of the seizure, would not give up the vessel until the evening of the 28th, and then reluctantly, demanding 18 dollars for his trouble.

The above is made public by desire of a number of respectable inhabitants of Turks Island, who request all masters of vessels bound to that port, to be aware of the said Michael Daxton, and a Mr. H. Stubbs, both of whom are there considered as dangerous and unprincipled characters.

From the Evening Post.
Extract of a letter from a gentleman in Baltimore, to the editor, dated Sept. 20.

"As I perceive by the articles which have from time to time appeared in your paper that the system of privateering which our merchants have carried on for some time past, has been reprobated by you, I now communicate some of their proceedings for your information. It seems that the Spanish property having been swept from the ocean, their cupidity has been attracted by the valuable Portuguese vessels and cargoes which navigate between Portugal, the Brazils and the East-Indies. Blank commissions are procured from Aragus, who occupies the banks of the river Plate, opposite Buenos Ayres, under colour of which, vessels, armed, equipped and owned in the United States, and more particularly in this city, attack all the Portuguese and Spanish vessels they fall in with, plunder them of the specie which they find on board, and if the vessels have valuable cargoes, order some for St. Barts, where it appears, an arrangement of mutual convenience has been made with the governor; others, for the ports of the United States. Two privateers, which lately arrived at this place, have carried on their depredations to a most ruinous extent. One of them called La Fortuna, formerly the Fourth of July, has captured from 8 to 12 Portuguese vessels, among which are the Raynha dos Anjos, from which she took out 82,000 dollars; a large ship of 900 tons, called the Monte Alegre, loaded with a cargo valued at half a million of dollars; la Gama, and Don Joan Sexto, valued at 100,000 dollars each, besides other vessels of less value. Another privateer, called La Irresistible, which left this place in January last, returned a few days ago, having pillaged, destroyed and taken 20 sail of Portuguese vessels, among which were 8 Indiamen of great value: the privateer is said to have brought into this port upwards of 200,000 dollars in specie."

"The Portuguese consul general has commenced sundry suits to endeavor to procure the restitution of some of this property. He is said to have attached a quantity of specie deposited in one of the banks and to have libelled a large Portuguese ship and cargo, which lately entered this port as a prize to the Fortuna. He has moreover directed prosecutions to be undertaken against the reputed owners of the privateer in this city, to recover the value of four of the captures; and the judge of the district court has ordered them to give bail each to the amount of 500,000 dollars. The following persons have been held to bail: John S. Skinner, the post master of this city; Matthew Murray, the sheriff of Baltimore county; Joseph Karkick, John Snyder and Joseph Patterson.

"The affair has assumed a serious complexion, and if the Consul is successful, as can scarcely be doubted, must, from the magnitude of the claim, be attended with almost certain ruin to the parties, and probably to their bail, who, it is said, are liable to the full amount of whatever may be the recovery against the persons prosecuted; there being in this respect a difference between the admiralty law, and the common law. The same persons have also been arrested upon a criminal charge of violating the act of Congress in fitting out the privateer Fourth of July, and have been held to bail by order of the Judge, to stand their trial in November next."

Communicated for this Gazette.

Extract from the minutes of the general assembly of the Presbyterian church, held in Philadelphia, in May 1818.

The committee to which was referred the resolution on the subject of selling a slave, a member of the church, and which was directed to prepare a report to be adopted by the assembly, expressing their opinion in general on the subject of slavery, reported, and their report being read, was unanimously adopted, and referred to the same committee for publication.

It is as follows, viz—
"The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, having taken into consideration the subject of slavery, think proper to make known their sentiments upon it to the churches and people under their care."

"We consider the voluntary enslaving of one part of the human race by another, as a gross violation of the most precious and sacred rights of human nature; as utterly inconsistent with the law of God, which requires us to love our neighbor as ourselves; and as totally irreconcilable with the spirit and principles of the Gospel of Christ, which enjoin that, 'all things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them.' Slavery creates a paradox in the moral system—it exhibits rational, accountable, and immortal beings, in such circumstances as scarcely to leave them the power of moral action. It exhibits them as dependent on the will of others, whether they shall receive religious instruction; whether they shall know and worship the true God; whether they shall enjoy the ordinances of the Gospel; whether they shall perform the duties and cherish the endearments of husband and wife, parents and children, neighbors and friends; whether they shall preserve their chastity and purity, or regard the dictates of justice and humanity. Such are some of the consequences of Slavery—consequences not imaginary—but which connect themselves with its very existence. The evils to which the slave is always exposed, often take place in fact, and in their very worst degree and form; and where all of them do not take place, as we rejoice to say that in many instances, through the influence of the principles of humanity and religion on the minds of masters, they do not—still the slave is deprived of his natural right, degraded as a human being, and exposed to the danger of passing into the hands of a master who may inflict upon him all the hardships and injuries which inhumanity and avarice may suggest."

"From this view of the consequences resulting from the practice into which christian people have most inconsistently fallen, of enslaving a portion of their brethren of mankind—for 'God hath made of one blood all nations of men to dwell on the face of the earth'—it is manifestly the duty of all christians who enjoy the light of the present day, to see the inconsistency of slavery, both with the dictates of humanity and religion, has been demonstrated, and is generally seen and acknowledged, to use their best, earnest, and unwearied endeavours, to correct the errors of former times, and as speedily as possible to efface this blot on our holy religion, and to obtain the complete abolition of slavery throughout christendom, and if possible throughout the world."

"We rejoice that the church to which we belong commenced, as early as any other in this country, the good work of endeavoring to put an end to slavery, and that in the same work, many of its members have ever since been, and now are, among the most active, vigorous and efficient laborers. We do, indeed, tenderly sympathize with those portions of our church and our country, where the evil of slavery has been entailed upon them; where a great, and the most virtuous part of the community abhor slavery, and wish its extermination, as sincerely as any others—but where the number of slaves, their ignorance, and their vicious habits generally, render an immediate and universal emancipation inconsistent, and with the happiness of the master and the slave. With those who are thus circumstanced, we repeat that we tenderly sympathize. At the same time, we earnestly exhort them to continue, and, if possible, to increase their exertions to effect a total abolition of slavery. We exhort them to suffer no greater delay to take place in this most interesting concern, than a regard to the public welfare truly and indispensably demands."

"As our country has inflicted a most grievous injury on the unhappy Africans, by bringing them into slavery, we cannot, indeed, urge that we should add a second injury to the first, by emancipating them in such manner as that they will be likely to destroy themselves or others. But we do think, that our country ought to be governed in this matter, by no other consideration than an honest and impartial regard to the happiness of the injured party; uninfluenced by the expense or inconvenience which such a regard may involve. We therefore warn all who belong to our denomination of christians, against unduly extending this plea of necessity; against making it a cover for the love and practice of slavery, or a pretence for not using efforts that are lawful and practicable to extinguish the evil."

"And we, at the same time, exhort others to forbear harsh censures, and uncharitable reflections on their brethren, who unhappily live among slaves, whom they cannot immediately set free; but who, at the same time, are really using all their influence, and all their endeavors, to bring them into a state of freedom, as soon as a door for it can be safely opened."

"Having thus expressed our views of slavery, and of the duty indispensably incumbent on all christians to labor for its complete extinction, we proceed to recommend—and we do it with all the earnestness and solemnity which this momentous subject demands—a particular attention to the following points."

"We recommend to all our people to patronize and encourage the Society, lately formed, for colonizing in Africa, the land of their ancestors, the free people of color in our country. We hope that much good may result from the plans and efforts of this Society. And whilst we exceedingly rejoice to have witnessed its origin and organization among the holders of slaves, as giving an unequivocal pledge of their desire to deliver themselves and their country from the calamity of slavery; we hope that those portions of the American Union, whose inhabitants are by a gracious Providence, more favorably circumstanced, will cordially ly, and liberally, and earnestly co-operate with their brethren, in bringing about the great end contemplated."

"We recommend to all the members of our religious denomination, not only to permit, but to facilitate and encourage the instruction of their slaves, in the principles and duties of the christian religion; by granting them liberty to attend on the preaching of the gospel, when they have the opportunity; by favoring the instruction of them in Sabbath-Schools, wherever those Schools can be formed; and by giving them all other proper advantages for acquiring the knowledge of their duty both to God and man."

"We are perfectly satisfied, that as it is incumbent on all christians to communicate religious instruction to those who are under their authority, so that the doing of this in the case before us, so far from operating, as some have apprehended that it might, as an excitement to insubordination and insurrection would, on the contrary, operate as the most powerful means for the prevention of those evils."

"We join in it on all Church Sessions and Presbyteries, under the care of this Assembly, to discountenance, and, as far as possible, to prevent, all cruelty of whatever kind in the treatment of slaves; especially the cruelty of separating husband and wife, parents and children, and that which consists in selling slaves to those who will either transport them to places where the Gospel is not proclaimed, or where it is forbidden to slaves to attend upon its institutions. The manifest violation or disregard of the injunction here given, in its true spirit and intent ought to be considered as just ground for the discipline and censures of the church. And if it shall ever happen that a christian professor, in our communion, shall sell a slave who is also in communion and good standing with our church, contrary to his or her will, and inclination, it ought immediately to claim the particular attention of the proper church judicature; and unless there be such peculiar circumstances attending the case as can but seldom happen, it ought to be followed, without delay, by a suspension of the offender from all the privileges of the church, till he repent, and make all the reparation in his power to the injured party."

TOWN ORDINANCE.

An act for fitting up the room at present occupied by the Clerk of the Circuit Court for the Mayor's Office.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the common council of the town of Alexandria, That immediately on the clerk of the circuit court of the District of Columbia, for the county of Alexandria, giving up possession of the room at present occupied as an office by the clerk, the mayor do cause the same forthwith to be fitted up in a proper manner for the mayor's office, and that a sum not exceeding one hundred and fifty dollars be appropriated for that purpose.

Section 2. And be it further enacted, That the mayor do, as soon as the said room is fitted up as aforesaid, transact the duties of his office at the said office; and for the convenience of the public he may, and he is hereby authorized to fix certain hours in the day for his attendance at the said office for the discharge of his official duties.

Section 3. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of the police constables, or one of them, to attend regularly at the mayor's office during office hours, unless they be engaged elsewhere in the discharge of some of the duties of their office.

Section 4. And be it further enacted, That this act shall be in force from and after the passing of the same.

Passed in council the 15th day of September 1818.

Prince-street Academy.

A few doors west of the Farmers' Bank.

THE subscriber most respectfully informs the inhabitants of Alexandria that his Academy is now open for the reception of the respectable youth of the city. His evening instructions will commence on Monday the 23th inst. Young men who wish to avail themselves of the opportunity would do well to apply immediately, as the number of pupils is limited. None except persons of moral character and respectability need apply. In this Academy youth shall be expeditiously taught all the various branches of a liberal education, the various branches of measuring; prepared for the Counting house, Navy, &c. The public in general, but particularly Parents and Guardians, are invited to visit this institution, observe the order, and manner of instruction, and judge for themselves. Application to be made to the Professor at the Academy, where the terms will be made known.

Lexington at Public Sale.
On THURSDAY, October 15, If fair, if not, the next fair day, will be offered at public sale, on the premises, Lexington.

THIS estate, containing two thousand three hundred and fifty acres, more or less, being one half of the well known tract of land commonly called "Mason's Neck," situated on the Potomac, in the county of Fairfax, Virginia, is now offered for sale.
About two-thirds of it is covered with an uncommon heavy growth of white and bl'k oak, hickory, pine, poplar, &c. near the water's edge, whence it may be transported to the markets of the district of Columbia, (a distance of 20 miles only) where timber and fuel are always in demand, and without the expense and risk encountered in conveying these articles from situations further down the river; the remainder is in cultivation, and furnished with every necessary building for that purpose: together with orchards and a blacksmith's shop. The of improvements are, a spacious and elegant dwelling-house, kitchen, bath, dairy, smoke-house, office, icehouse, a well of excellent water, and a falling garden, of the most tasteful and costly design, filled with the rarest and most beautiful shrubberies and flowers, exotic and indigenous, all situated on an eminence commanding a view of the rest of the tract, which extends to an uninterrupted plain from the foot of the eminence to the Potomac and Occoquan, by which it is so far bounded as to render the expense of enclosing it comparatively nothing. The prospect, moreover, of the surrounding country, diversified in every direction by sheets of water, is really beautiful beyond description. There are likewise attached to this estate four valuable

Shad & Herring Fisheries: however, the subscriber intends to reserve one of them and a few acres of land. The woods abound with deer in such numbers, that with a little care a gentleman might command a constant supply of venison for his table; and besides the large streams above mentioned, the various creeks and inlets that every where intersect the land are covered in the proper season with wild fowl of every description known in our waters.
When to all these advantages is added the great natural fertility of the land, which is not exceeded perhaps in the western country, its adaptation to improvement by the use of plaster, which has been proved by experiment, its vicinity to society, to market, to two manufacturing grist-mills, to which the distance of conveyance by land and water is not more than 5 or 6 miles, it may with truth be pronounced the most valuable estate, of the same extent, in the whole range of country watered by the Potomac.
It will be sold entire, or divided to suit purchasers.

The terms of sale will be one-third of the purchase money in hand, the remaining 2-3ds in two equal annual payments, with interest from the day of sale, secured by a deed of trust on the land—which will be shown in my absence to any person disposed to purchase, by Mr. William MASON, or Mr. Weston, residing on the premises.

Gunston for Sale.
THIS elegant estate is situated on the Potomac, 16 miles below Alexandria —it is bounded on three sides by the Potomac and Potomac creek, and contains nearly 3,000 acres of land, level and fertile, to which are attached six shad and herring fisheries, two of which command the river channel. This land will be laid off in four tracts, so as to have one or more fisheries to each; these tracts will be again divided if requisite. This estate is level and beautifully situated, very fertile, and remarkably healthy. Plaster acts with an effect equal to that of any part of Virginia or Pennsylvania. I have used 500 bushels in twelve months, and such is its beneficial operation, that were I to keep this land I should considerably increase the quantity.
A manufacturing mill is distant about two miles, on a stream navigable for vessels carrying 1200 bushels of wheat, where the Baltimore and Dist. of Columbia prices are given for grain: being bounded on 3 sides by water, a small extent only of fence is necessary to inclose the whole: it would be admirably adapted to grazing. The improvements are a large and very substantial brick mansion, 40 by 70 feet, with every necessary outhouse, three commodious barns, houses for Negroes, and fish houses at each of the fisheries. 120,000 bricks and 1000 bushels of lime are just burnt on the premises. There is a considerable extent of fine fence, both useful and ornamental, two orchards of well selected apples and peach, besides an abundance of other choice fruit.
More than 150 acres are in clover, 200 in corn, and land is in preparation for sowing 250 bushels of small grain. Any quantity of hay can be cut from the low ground, some of which (and all might) have been reclaimed at a trifling expense. The river and creeks, abound with wild fowl, particularly canvass backs, the woods with deer and a variety of other game. Mules, cattle, highly improved sheep, farming utensils and household furniture can be had.
The terms of sale will be accommodating.
Property in any of the cities, negroes, bank stock, western lands, or lands near the River, will be taken in payment. Letters must be addressed to me at Potomac Church, Fairfax county, Virginia.

hereby given to the creditors of the said JASON DOWE, that on the first Monday in October next, at the court house of said county, the oath prescribed by the act of Congress of the United States, entitled "an act for the relief of insolvent debtors within the District of Columbia," will be administered to the said insolvent, and a trustee appointed, unless sufficient cause to the contrary be then and there shown.— Ordered, that this notice be advertised in both papers published in Alexandria, three times a week for two weeks before the said first Monday in October next.
By order of the hon. Wm. Cranch, chief Judge of the U. States Circuit Court for the District of Columbia.

Stop the Swindler.
FIFTY DOLLARS REWARD.
I WILL give the above reward for apprehending and lodging in any jail in the District of Columbia, a person by the name of JOHN POST, a Bricklayer and Stonemason, who has been at work for about two months past at Fort Washington, and was discharged on the 7th of September inst.— He says he was born in the state of New-York; is about 5 feet 9 or 10 inches high, and has sandy hair: he had with him an apprentice boy, nearly grown. A few days previous to his leaving Fort Washington he took the liberty of borrowing, in the name of Mr. John Cohagen, from a lady at that place 16 dollars, which was not known till after he left it: and immediately after he was discharged and paid off, he forged two checks in the name of the Subscriber, on the Farmers' Bank of Alexandria, one of which he procured the money for at the Bank, and the other he passed to a person in Alexandria, which was detected and refused.—Previous to his coming to Fort Washington, he worked in the City of Washington, where he said he intended to work again; but it is probable he has not stopped so near the theatre of his villainy.
Persons are cautioned against being imposed on by him. BOLI'HA LAWS.

Maryland, will dispose of (standing) a large quantity of first rate White Oak Ship Timber, Wharf Logs, Timber suited for Staves, Plank, Scantling, or other purposes, in any quantity; likewise several thousand cords Oak Wood. Purchasers will find it to their advantage to apply as the terms will be moderate, and the water is navigable to the spot.

Alexandria, August 4.
WAS committed to the jail of this Co. as a runaway, a negro man, who calls himself JOHN WEAKS, and says that he was born free in Prince George Co., Maryland, that his mother's name is Sally Green, who lives near the road leading from the Alexandria Ferry to the Eastern Branch bridge, adjoining one Hen. Thompson. He was committed to this jail on the 7th May last, and then called himself William Washington, but made his escape the 16th. He is about 25 years of age, 5 feet 7 inches high, stout made. Says he is known to Mr. Daniel Moxley, and Henry Thompson, of Maryland. The owners requested to come and prove his property, pay charges, and take him away, otherwise he will be disposed of as the law directs.

Charles County Court,
March Term, 1818.
BILL IN CHANCERY.
Robert Perry

James B. Donnington, Robert Donnington, Francis Taylor and Elizabeth B. his wife, James Moxham and Catharine his wife, William Simmons and Esther his wife, heirs at William Donnington.

THE Complainant alleged in his bill that the Respondents have in possession the real estate of their deceased father Wm. Donnington, whose personal estate was not sufficient for the payment of his debts. Wm. Donnington's estate is indebted to the complainant in a large sum of money. The object of the bill is to procure a decree for the sale of the land, for the payment of the debts remaining unpaid by the personal estate.
Some of the heirs of Wm. Donnington are non-residents. It is thereupon, at the instance of the Complainant, ordered that a copy of this order be inserted in the Alexandria Gazette for the space of three months, to the intent that the absent defendants may have notice of this application, and of the subject and object of the bill, and may be warned to appear in this court in person or by a spector, to show cause, if any there be, wherefore a decree should not pass as prayed. Teste,

Charles County Court,
March Term 1818.

Application to Charles County Court by petition in writing of John Smith, of Charles county, for the benefit of the act of assembly, for the relief of sundry in solvent debtors, passed at November session 1805, and the several supplements thereon, on the terms mentioned therein, a schedule of his property and a list of his creditors on oath, so far as he can ascertain them, being annexed to his petition, and the court being satisfied by competent testimony that the said John Smith has resided two years immediately preceding the time of his application, in the state of Maryland, and being also satisfied that the said John Smith is in actual confinement for debt, and the said John Smith having entered into bond with sufficient security for his personal appearance in Charles county court, to answer such allegations as his creditors may make against him.—It is therefore ordered and adjudged that the said John Smith be discharged from imprisonment; and that by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some one of the newspapers edited in the District of Columbia, once a week for two months successively before the third Monday of August next, he give notice to his creditors to appear before the said Court, at Charlestown, in said county, on the said third Monday of August next, for the purpose of recommending a trustee for their benefit, and to show cause why the said John Smith should not have the benefit of the several insolvent laws as prayed. Given under my hand this 20th day of June 1818.

PROPOSALS.
By Gideon Fairman, John Binns and Charles S. Parker,
TO PUBLISH
A Splendid Edition of Washington's Farewell Address.
To the People of the United States.

THE world has seen enough of warriors and of Heroes—enough of Statesmen—of men who have guided Armies in the field, or dictated as Sages in the Cabinet, for the exclusive purpose of Ambition. History from its earliest page to the present day, has offered to our contemplation, only ONE WASHINGTON, but ONE MAN, whose dangers in war, and labors in peace, were undertaken and supported with a single eye, to the benefit of his country; whose wonderful and honorable success, was the plain result of wisdom in design, and valour in execution; whom danger never appalled, nor defeat depressed; who, persevering in the justice of his cause, waged Victory till he won her: who covetted no reward but the well earned approbation of those whose interest he lived to promote: who renounced all public honors, when they ceased to be the necessary instruments of good to the people, whose gratitude conferred them: who superior to all Monarchs, was content to be called the American Citizen. His career of glory through life was unstained by crime; and his death was felt as a loss by every individual of that community, whose political existence was the fruit of his exertions.

THE FAREWELL ADDRESS of General Washington is the condensed result of long experience, matured reflection and strong anxiety for the permanent prosperity of his country. His advice concerning the great importance of maintaining indissolubly the federal Union: the danger of indulging too much in party feelings—the necessity of supporting public credit at home:—of maintaining public faith in all our transactions with foreign nations: of encouraging foreign intercourse free from foreign attachments:—are so many lessons of prudence which we should do well to bear in constant remembrance. Why therefore should not his legacy of wisdom and affection, be so published, as to admit of being constantly before our eyes? An ornament to our apartments, while it serves as a memento to guide our public feelings, and to manifest that the author lives in our memories?

To make it such, is the aim of the proposed Edition.
The Publishers are determined that the Address shall be printed on paper of the same quality and size as the splendid edition of the Declaration of Independence now engraving, & shall in all respects be a companion worthy that great State paper.

As errors are known from various causes to find their way into the most important writings, the publishers feel it their duty, not only to satisfy themselves, but to satisfy the public, of the authenticity of the copy from which this splendid Edition of the Farewell Address shall be published.
MR. GEORGE BRIDPORT will complete the Design: of which the following is an outline:—The introductory part of the Address, in highly finished ornamental penmanship, shall form the upper part;—the other parts of the plate, shall be appropriate ornaments:—in the centre below shall be engraved, from an historical design for this publication by Mr. Sully the Surrender of the British Army at York-town, October 19, 1781.

The Address itself shall be printed with type of a peculiar and a propi-etate character, designed for this purpose by Mr. Fairman, and to be cut and cast by our best artists. No more of the type shall be cast than will be necessary to execute this Address; & when it shall be completed, the type and the matrices in which it was cast shall be utterly destroyed; so that no other work shall ever be executed by the same letter which shall have printed the "FAREWELL ADDRESS" of him who lived and died, first in War; first in Peace, and first in the hearts of his Countrymen.

The paper, of the first quality, 36 by 26 inches, will be made by Mr.
Amies. The ink shall be carefully prepared, and of the best materials.
The signature of General Washington from which it is proposed to execute a fac simile for this publication, is that which he affixed to the Constitution of the United States, when he signed it as President of the Convention in which it was framed; Thus associating and concentrating some of the greatest events in the life of this great man and in the history of his Country.

The ornamental writing will be designed and executed in the very best manner; the ornamental parts of the design and vignette, will be engraved by G. FAIRMAN; and the Typographical part executed by John Binns.
They will take especial care of the execution of their several duties in this respect, and they will call to their aid, all that liberality, zeal and industry can command from the Sciences and Arts, so as to make the "Farewell Address" no mean specimen of the state of the Fine Arts in the United States.

As much progress has already been made in designing and procuring materials for this splendid edition of Gen. Washington's "Farewell Address," it is expected it will be ready for delivery, with the Splendid Edition of the Declaration of Independence, in the month of December next.
That the public may have a more perfect view of the design and style of execution, than can be given in a proposal, of this Tribute to the memory of him who was "a Conqueror for the Freedom of his Country! A Magistrate for its Security! A Magistrate for its Happiness," it is not intended to solicit any Subscriptions until the Ornamental parts of the plate shall be executed. It will then be submitted for public inspection and public patronage, at five dollars a Copy, payable on the delivery of the Engraving. Philadelphia, July, 91.
